As long as the calf-skimming, figure-flattering length stays the same, a midi is still a midi. Everything else, however, is ripe for reinvention. This season's hemlines have been expertly tweaked and trimmed, adding a decorative new dimension to the much-loved length.

THE STRIPED ONE

Marco de Vincenzo's statement skirt combines multiple boardroom-to-bar features: buoyant stripes, a wrap front and a fluted hem that creates the illusion of an A-line.
