

ROKSANDA PRE FALL 16 28pt

30px

The next phase of femininity

13pt

70px

33%

ROKSANDA
Piped Trim Towan Culottes

ROKSANDA
Jaco Dress

120px

Here's a dilemma most women will be familiar with: do you want to dress for men, or for women? Put it another way, do you opt for clothes which are flattering or fashion-forward? (This crude generalisation is a clich   for a reason). Well, ladies, Roksanda is the proof that you can have it all.

In the decade she's helmed her eponymous label, designer Roksanda Ilincic has proved her knack for knowing what women really want to wear: clothes that tick both fashionable and flattering boxes. Inventive little twists and confident colour-blocking are hallmarks of her sculptural collections (those exaggerated silhouettes the legacy of her time studying architecture in her native Belgrade). Ilincic's ageless aesthetic has won her industry acclaim and a loyal, varied fanbase; you'll find two British Fashion Awards and two ELLE Style awards in her trophy cabinet, while the Duchess of Cambridge, Emma Stone and Naomi Harris are among those who've worn her designs.

Roksanda

42%

90px

'I want to make clothes for women taking their child to school, running around during a busy day at work, and going out for dinner in the evening.'

Roksanda told <http://www.harpersbazaar.co.uk/>

90px

21px
31px Lineheight
playfiar

28%

33%

ROKSANDA
Contrast Collar & Bow Kellawat Shirt

The effortless '70s-tinged shapes of Roksanda's PRE FALL 16 collection are designed to be worn wherever and whenever. The curving sweep of waves and patchwork jacquards in contrasting colours run throughout, detailing a standout pair of wide culottes and a series of structured dresses that would look as good in the office as they would come cocktail hour. This season, the signature statement sleeves are more balloon than bell; while ever, Ilincic proves her point with grace: looking good, doesn't need to mean playing it safe.

33%

13px
21px Lineheight
Arial

The EDIT

ROKSANDA
Contrast Collar & Bow Kellawat Shirt

ROKSANDA
Piped Trim Towan Culottes

ROKSANDA
Collared Jessa Swing Dress

ROKSANDA
Creme Knot Front Jumpsuit