

INSIDER ADDRESS BOOK

Jonathan Simkhai's New York

54px

With the likes of Gigi Hadid and Emily Ratajkowski hanging on his every seam, and a CFDA/Vogue Fashion Fund win under his belt, it's clear Jonathan Simkhai is seriously hot property. Carving a niche with his sexy-sporty silhouettes and wonderful fabric manipulation (the second-skin intarsia knits and graphic laces are a house signature), the native New Yorker translates the city's powerful confidence into his youthful yet sophisticated collections. We asked Simkhai to give us a glimpse of some of his Manhattan hot spots.
