NEW ARRIVAL: SEA NY

66px

Bringing boho bang up to date with artful twists and supreme wearability, Sea NY is the New York name to know now. Designers Monica Paolini and Sean Monahan elevate their simple shapes with assorted embellishments to sew up day-to-night dressing. None of boho's traditional effortlessness and irreverence is lost and as a result, Sea NY's overall mood is also cool and forward thinking.

"I always like things that are cute and vintage-y and Sean has a more modern approach- he pushes me and we push each other,"

Paolini told harpersbazaar.com

The Pre Fall 16 pieces showcase exactly why Sea Ny's momentum is growing. The folksy dresses can switch dresscodes instantly and have the kind of intricate embroidery and prints that are best appreciated up close. The flattering tops also have dynamic details: clashing textures, fine fringing and tassels to revamp your favourite denim and tailoring elegantly and progressively. All in all, it's everything you need for an ultra-stylish summer.
